

Annual Workshop Agenda

San Diego Marriott Marquis & Marina • 333 W. Harbor Dr., San Diego, CA

Thursday, November 30 (6.0 hours MCLE / All events will take place in Marina Ballroom D unless otherwise noted.)
8:00 – 8:45 am (.25 hour MCLE)	Registration, Continental Breakfast and Welcoming Remarks Bridget Cook, CCSA President and General Counsel, Antelope Valley Union HSD
8:45 – 9:45 am (1.0 hour MCLE)	Personal Emails, Texts and Technology Devices are Now Subject to the California Public Records Act; What Should School Districts Do Next? - Following the California Supreme Court's Decision in City of San Jose v. Superior Court of Santa Clara County (S218066, March 2, 2017), we walk through strategies for advising school districts on the California Public Records Act (CPRA) in a new era. We provide a brief overview of the range of responses to varying CPRA requests and how best to balance the law's expanded mandate with a school district's limited resources. We will also review CPRA hot topics in a post-San Jose world including requests for employee discipline, de-identified student data, investigative reports, school district data and as a pre-litigation discovery tool. Presenter: L. Carlos Villegas, Fagen Friedman &amp; Fulfrost LLP
9:50 – 10:50 am (1.0 hour MCLE)	Catfish in the Rye – Social Media - Since social media use typically happens off school grounds, it can be tricky for teachers and administrators to know when and how to intervene. Learn how to create and enforce a lawful social media policy, requirements for monitoring and maintaining school sponsored websites, appropriate use of social media in hiring, and when and how to respond to online impersonators, and harassment and bullying of students and staff. Presenters: Hollis Peterson, Partner, &amp; Corrie Klekowski, Associate, Paul, Plevin, Sullivan &amp; Connaughton LLP
10:55 – 11:55 am (1.0 hour MCLE)	The Problem Employee - Public employees are a fantastic group of workers but, every now and then, an employee engages in egregious conduct that requires an expedient response from the human resources department. This workshop will provide attendees with the legal framework for addressing questions and an interactive opportunity for attorneys practicing education law to discuss their preferred approach. Presenter: Marisa Lincoln, Partner, Lozano Smith
12:00 – 1:15 pm (.75 hour MCLE)	Lunch ( San Diego C ) Education Legal Alliance (ELA) Update - Presenter: Mike Ambrose, CSBA/ELA Certificated Layoff Summaries Update - Presenter: Melissa Brown, Schools Legal Service
1:20 – 2:20 pm (1.0 hour MCLE)  Breakout Session Rooms: 1 – Marina Ballroom D 2 – Grand Ballroom 12	Breakout Sessions: 1. Background Checks: How to Get (and Give) Meaningful Information about Job Candidates...and Not Get Sued - How often do you hear (or say): we only give last date of service, title, salary? And how often do you wish you had known more...or been able to say more? Learn methods for obtaining (and giving) substantive, candid information, other methods for obtaining reliable information about your candidates, and best practices in conducting background checks. Presenters: Laura Schulkind, Partner &amp; Kristin Lindgren, Associate, Liebert Cassidy Whitmore  2. Cutting Edge Legal Issues in Charter Petition Renewal - The legal issue decided by the Superior Court and now before the California Court of Appeal is a case of first impression: on renewal of a charter petition, is the standard of review CCP 1085 or 1094.5? Presenters: Margaret Chidester &amp; Steven Chidester, Law Offices of Margaret A. Chidester &amp; Associates
2:30 – 3:30 pm (1.0 hour MCLE)	Protecting Your District – Body Cameras - A Video Tells a 1000 Words - He said, she said . . . What really happened? Contradictory stories and events may be resolved by review of videos obtained by body cameras. Challenging issues continue to be raised regarding the use of body cameras, including issues raised by policies and procedures in a school setting, how information obtained from body cameras should be maintained or released, and collective bargaining. Presenters: Alan Atlas, Partner &amp; Shawna McKee, Sr. Associate, Atkinson Andelson Loya Ruud &amp; Romo
4:00 – 6:00 pm	Reception ( Hotel Lobby )
