Vote scores are tallied on bills that CSBA maintains an active position on. These active positions are: SUPPORT, OPPOSE and OPPOSE UNLESS AMENDED.

NOTES:

- (1) Steve Bradford was sworn into office on September 10, 2009 to replace Curren Price after he was elected to the Senate.
- (2) Michael Duvall resigned from office on September 9, 2009.
- (3) Jenny Oropeza's voting opportunities were limited during this timeframe due to health reasons.

DEFINITIONS:

VOTES FAVORABLE is any vote matching CSBA's position. For example an "AYE" vote for a bill that CSBA supports, or a "NO" vote for a bill that CSBA is opposed to or has a position of oppose unless amended on.

VOTES UNFAVORABLE is any vote not matching CSBA's position. For example an "AYE" vote on a bill that CSBA is opposed to or has a position of oppose unless amended on.

ABSTAINED is either a record of absence at the time of voting or a deliberate choice not to cast an AYE or NO vote.

MEASURE is the total number of potential opportunities to cast a vote on a bill that CSBA maintains an active position on. These numbers fluctuate based on house, committee participation and floor votes. Reconsideration and suspend votes have been removed from this scoring.

% FAVORABLE TO CSBA is calculated by the total number of favorable votes divided by the total number of voting opportunities displayed in the MEASURE column.

% UNFAVORABLE TO CSBA is calculated the total number of unfavorable votes divided by the total number of voting opportunities displaying in the MEASURE column.

Vote scores are tallied on bills that CSBA maintains an active position on. These active positions are: SUPPORT, OPPOSE and OPPOSE UNLESS AMENDED.

NOTES:

- (1) Steve Bradford was sworn into office on September 10, 2009 to replace Curren Price after he was elected to the Senate.
- (2) Michael Duvall resigned from office on September 9, 2009.
- (3) Jenny Oropeza's voting opportunities were limited during this timeframe due to health reasons.

DEFINITIONS:

VOTES FAVORABLE is any vote matching CSBA's position. For example an "AYE" vote for a bill that CSBA supports, or a "NO" vote for a bill that CSBA is opposed to or has a position of oppose unless amended on.

VOTES UNFAVORABLE is any vote not matching CSBA's position. For example an "AYE" vote on a bill that CSBA is opposed to or has a position of oppose unless amended on.

ABSTAINED is either a record of absence at the time of voting or a deliberate choice not to cast an AYE or NO vote.

MEASURE is the total number of potential opportunities to cast a vote on a bill that CSBA maintains an active position on. These numbers fluctuate based on house, committee participation and floor votes. Reconsideration and suspend votes have been removed from this scoring.
