

Local Control Funding and Accountability – A Community Conversation

In June 2013, Governor Jerry Brown signed SB 97 into a law, changing how education funding is allocated in California K-12 schools. Come learn what this means for our schools and our students.

Find Out:

- How the new funding works
- What the law requires of boards and districts
- How the community can have input into the process

Join Us

- Date
- Time
- Location
- Speakers
- Refreshments
- Child care
- Translation

Also include:

- List Partners
- Contact number