

Derby Pattengill biography:

Derby Pattengill has over 17 years of PTA volunteer service. He served as Vice President for Health and Community Concerns for the California State PTA and as President of the 9th District PTA, covering 70,000 members in San Diego and Imperial Counties. Derby authored numerous position statements and resolutions, shaping policy and driving positive change. Derby remains an advocate for students, families, and education. Derby is a graduate of the University of San Diego with bachelor's degrees in computer science and marine studies.